

Baracks

Reading is important because it helps you to know more words, it also helps you speak to people if you can't talk that well. Reading is also important because it is helpful for spelling and if you don't know the words in a book you can read it again and again and learn more and more.