QUESTIONS & ACTIVITIES

1. In Chapter 3, the pups name several towns. Make a list of all the towns or areas mentioned. Next, open your Kentucky map and locate each of the towns or areas.
 2. Since you are looking at the map, locate Purchase Parkway. (It's also called Julian M. Carroll Purchase Parkway.) Do you see where it begins and ends? In what town would the Purchase Parkway connect to I-24?
 3. Who is Julian M. Carroll? Where was he born?
 4. Woody learns the motto on the Kentucky flag says, "United We Stand, Divided We Fall." What exactly does that mean?
 5. In Chapter 3, the family discusses the custom of flying the flag from sunrise to sunset. Using the internet, search "US Flag Code #6" to learn other places and times the flag should be displayed.

EMAIL WOODY

At the end of the chapter, the gentleman from the store knocks on the window of the car. Email Woody at woody@thewoodybooks.com and make a prediction on what you think the gentleman needs. Feel free to pass along any other information about festivals in the email.

Check Woody's website and his facebook at www.facebook.com/woodykywiener to see the emails he received.

CUT & PASTE

If your newspaper provided a scrapbook, make sure you cut out this week's chapter and paste it in the scrapbook. If they didn't, make your own scrapbook. Once you've collected all 10 chapters, you will have your very own Woody book! Are Woody and Chloe coming to your town soon? If so, bring your scrapbook for the pups to sign!

More of MY TOWN

Wondering about a festival that hasn't appeared in the newspaper? Fortunately for us Kentuckians, there are countless festivals every weekend throughout the state. Unfortunately, however, we couldn't feature them all in the newspaper. Therefore, we are dedicating Woody's blog to Kentucky festivals. Visit www.thewoodybooks.wordpress.com for more information.
